

Uniglobe Reporter

The only tool you will need to effectively manage your travel expenses.

Strategic management for your travel program can bring the savings right to your company's bottom line. Having the right reports on which to base decisions is crucial. Uniglobe Reporter is a web-based travel data consolidation and reporting tool, that gives you live access to all your company's travel information online, anywhere, anytime!

Uniglobe Reporter empowers you to better manage your travel budgets by monitoring policy and contracts, reconciling travel spending and analyzing results. You have access to your own data through a secure ID and password, accessible from anywhere via the internet.

By using these reports, together we can create a well-defined travel policy, which could reduce your annual travel expenditures by up to 20%.

1. Automated data synchronization with no user intervention. This could include back office accounting, unused e-ticket data, credit card data and more!
2. Search any transaction in the data warehouse and reprint invoice copies.
3. Customized dashboard unique to your company's needs and can include snapshot reports, graphs, and charts relating to travel spending and usage, frequently run reports and quick search for transactions.
4. Reports are produced in PDF, Excel, HTML, XML or Word format.
5. Schedule reporting for recurring delivery individually or in batches in email or to report history. Never spend time running reports again. End users can batch, schedule and distribute reports themselves as well.
